Counsel are welcome to consider either of two general scheduling options. If counsel believe that this case should follow discovery in the ordinary course then the joint plan will address the issues covered in Rules 16(c) and 26(f) and Local Rule 16(b); any issues not applicable to this case should be mentioned briefly as not applicable. The attached chambers guide includes a model scheduling order that will help. Alternatively, counsel may propose a custom schedule under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B) if they believe that a custom schedule would be more appropriate. The Court will issue a Scheduling Order after receiving the joint plan. Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), the parties at any time may consent to have the Magistrate Judge adjudicate individual dispositive proceedings or all proceedings in this case, including a jury or non-jury trial and entry of final judgment. (See also Fed. R. Civ. P. 73.) The parties are encouraged to consider potential benefits of a Rule 73 consent, including earlier motion resolution and trial scheduling; however, there will be no adverse consequences at all should the parties decline. SO ORDERED.
